CHAPTER 233.

[Published April 3, 1860.]

AN ACT to legalize the acts of the county board of supervisors of Manitowoc county, for the year A. D. 1859.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Action of Co.
board legalized.

SECTION 1. The action of the board of supervisors of the county of Manitowoc, in dividing the town of Two Rivers, and creating the town of Rowley, in said county, at its July session, in the year 1859, is hereby declared to be valid, and of the same force and effect as if all the provisions of law had been complied with by said board, in creating the said town of Rowley.

Vote declared to be valid.

SEC. 2. The vote taken by the electors of the town of Two Rivers, on the question of division of the said town, at the general election in November, of the year 1859, is hereby declared to be valid, and of the same force and effect as if the question of division had been submitted at the annual town meeting, as required by law.

Voters to choose town officers.

SEC. 3. The inhabitants of the district of country embraced within the limits of the said town of Rowley shall be entitled to meet for the purpose of choosing town officers, at the time and place designated by the board of supervisors of said county, at their July session, in the year 1859, and the officers then and there chosen, when qualified, shall be the officers of the said town, and shall proceed to organize the same as required by law.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 29, 1860.
