

missioners, showing the time so spent by them : Provided, that the expense, to either county, shall not exceed fifty dollars. Expense limited.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1860.

CHAPTER 377.

[Published May 1, 1860.]

AN ACT to provide for the disposal of the drainage fund in the county of Manitowoc.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All interest moneys appropriated for the year 1859, and paid over to the county of Manitowoc, in conformity with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for disposing of the drainage fund, and the distribution thereof," approved April 30, 1858, shall be appropriated and expended in the construction of roads therein, according to, and in a manner described by a resolution passed in the county board of supervisors of said county of Manitowoc, at the annual session in November, for the year 1859. Drainage fund—how expended.

SEC. 2. The board of supervisors of the county of Manitowoc, shall expend the moneys appropriated to the said county after the year 1859, from interest of the drainage fund, in the construction of roads and bridges in said county. Money—how expended after 1859.

SEC. 3. The moneys apportioned to said county shall be expended by the commissioners appointed by the board of supervisors, and shall be applied, exclusively, within the county to which the same shall have been apportioned, and not more than three hundred dollars shall be expended upon any one mile of road. Money to be expended by commissioners and limitation.

SEC. 4. The board of supervisors of the said county may make such rules and regulations as they may deem proper, prescribing the manner in which the duties enjoined by this act, upon the commissioners, shall be discharged; and whenever any work shall be completed, in conformity [conformity] to such regulations, the fact shall be certified, under oath, by the commissioner having the same under his direction, and thereupon payment shall be made Board of supervisors to make rules and regulations.

thereof out of the fund applicable to that purpose, and no other.

Misdemeanor
and penalty.

SEC. 5. If any commissioner, supervisor, treasurer, or other officer, whose duty it may be to carry into effect the provisions of this act, shall be directly or indirectly interested in any contract, or shall use for any other purpose, or in any manner misapply any of the moneys appropriated for the construction of any of the said roads, or shall neglect or refuse to carry into effect the provisions of this act, every such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished by fine, not exceeding one thousand dollars, nor less than one hundred dollars.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 2, 1860.

CHAPTER 378.

[Published May 1, 1860.]

AN ACT to cede jurisdiction to the United States over certain territory in the State of Wisconsin for the erection of a light house on Green Island, in Green Bay.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Jurisdiction
ceded.

SECTION 1. Jurisdiction is hereby ceded to the United States over so much land, not exceeding two acres, which is now, or may be hereafter, owned by this State, situate on the south-west corner of Green Island, in Green Bay, in the State of Wisconsin, for the construction and maintenance of a light house, and the dwellings of the keepers thereon: Provided, that this State shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the United States, in and over said piece or parcel of land, so far that all civil and criminal process may be executed therein, as may issue under competent authority of this State, in the same manner as though this assent had not been given.

State retain concurrent
jurisdiction.

Exempt from taxation.

SEC. 2. So long as the said land shall remain the property of the United States, and no longer, the same shall be exempt and discharged from all taxes, assessments, and other charges, which may be levied or imposed by, through, or under the authority of this State.