CHAPTER 184.

[Published April 11, 1861.]

AN ACT to provide for the disposal and expenditure of the Drainage Fund Income in the counties of Adams and Fond du Lac.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

When interest to be paid.

SECTION 1. That portion of the interest of the drainage fund income which shall hereafter become due, or which is now due, to the county of Adams and the county of Fond du Lac, shall be paid over to the county treasurer of each of said counties at the same time with the money due to each of said counties from the school fund income for each year.

How apportioned.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer of each of said counties, immediately upon the receipt of the said drainage money, to apportion the same among the several towns of each of said counties, in proportion to the number of acres of swamp and overflowed lands in each of said towns respectively; and he shall immediately give notice, in writing, to the town clerk of each town in each of said counties, of the amount apportioned to his town; and the town clerk of each such town shall thereupon file in his office such statement of the apportionment, and notify the town board of supervisors of his town that such apportionment has been made, and of the amount of such apportionment.

How expended.

SECTION 3. The said money when apportioned as aforesaid, shall be under the control of the town board of supervisors of each such town respectively, and shall be expended, under their direction, in the drainage and
