CHAPTER 182.

[Published April 16, 1863.]

AN ACT to amend chapter 72 of the private and local laws of 1858, entitled "an act to incorporate the city of Ripon."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subdivision 1st of section 3 of chapter 4 of said act, is hereby amended, by striking out the words, "No license shall be granted for less than one year," and substituting therefor the words, "Such license shall be granted for the term of office only of the common council granting the same."

Time for which licenses may be granted.

SECTION 2. Whenever any license shall be granted for a less term than one year, by virtue of this act, the common council granting the same shall have power to make a pro rata deduction from the amount required by law to be paid for such license, in proportion to the amount of time which may have elapsed after the term of office of such common council shall have commenced, and before the granting such license: provided, no such deduction shall be made reducing the amount required to be paid for such license, to less than one-fourth the Pro rata deduction on licenses.
