

urer, secretary and executive committee of three, who shall be elected annually to their respective offices, by such members of the corporation as shall, by the rules and regulations thereof, be entitled to vote at such election.

SECTION 5. It shall be lawful for said association ^{Other officers.} to elect such other officers as the condition and circumstances of the corporation may require, and to prescribe their powers and duties, and may require bonds for the faithful performance thereof, in such penal sum and with such sureties as they may choose, and also to prescribe their term of office: provided, however, that the said trustees shall hold their office for one year, and until others are elected and qualified.

SECTION 6. The property, real and personal, of said ^{Descent of property.} corporation, shall be devoted solely to the purposes and objects of said association; and all real and personal estate which may hereafter be lawfully conveyed by devise, gift, grant, purchase or otherwise to said association, shall descend, with improvements, in perpetual succession, and shall be held by said trustees and their successors in office, in trust for said corporation.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 2, 1863.

CHAPTER 356.

[Published May 7, 1863.]

AN ACT to incorporate the "Independent Heldmann relief association of Milwaukee, Wisconsin."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Charles Kuesel, Henry Solzer, H. Louis ^{Corporators.} Leiden, Christian Apfel, Florian Ehrmann, August Nuebling, Jacob Vaihinger, Frederick Feudel, Christian Westphal, Christian Krueger and John Hafne, who have united themselves into an association for the ^{Purposes.} purpose of affording relief to their members in sickness or distress, by contributing to the expenses for burying their dead, by furnishing aid to their widows and orphans, for the promotion of general learning and morality, and for other benevolent purposes, and their associates, are hereby declared and constituted a body corporate and politic, located at the city of Milwaukee, and known by the name of "Independent Heldmann relief association of Milwaukee, Wisconsin."

Name.

Powers.

SECTION 2. The said corporation shall have power to contract and be contracted with, to sue and to be sued, to implead and be impleaded (with), to answer and to be answered unto, in all courts of this state, and shall be vested with all the powers and privileges necessary to carry out and fulfill the object of this corporation.

By-laws, &c.

SECTION 3. It shall be lawful for said association, and the same is hereby empowered, to establish for its government a constitution and by-laws, not inconsistent with the constitution or laws of this state, to have and use a common seal, and to alter the same at pleasure, and to take by gift, grant or devise, and to hold and convey, real and personal property, not exceeding in value ten thousand dollars.

Board of trustees.

SECTION 4. The members of this association shall have power to assemble and meet at such times and places as may be agreed upon; and they shall elect not less than three and no more than nine discreet persons of their association, as trustees, who shall hold their office for one year, and until others are elected, and shall take charge of the real and personal property belonging thereto, and to transact all business relative to the investment and disposal thereof.

Other officers.

SECTION 5. It shall be lawful for said association to elect and appoint such other officers as the condition and the circumstances may require, to prescribe their powers and duties, require bonds for the faithful performance thereof, in such penal sum and with such sureties as they may choose, and to prescribe their term of office.

Descent of property.

SECTION 6. The property, real and personal, of said corporation, shall be devoted solely to the purposes and objects of said association; and all real and personal estate which the same may be possessed of, or which may hereafter be lawfully conveyed by devise, gift, grant, purchase or otherwise, to said association, or to any person or persons in trust for the same, shall descend, with improvements, in perpetual succession to and be held by said trustees and their successors in office, in trust for said corporation; and in case the number of members of good standing should decrease to nine or less, then and in such case the association shall have power to provide in their constitution or by-laws, that the real and personal estate of said association, if dissolved, shall go and descend to the widows, and in case there should be no widows and no orphans, then to the surviving members, share and share alike.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 2, 1863.

CHAPTER 357.

[Published May 6, 1863.]

AN ACT to amend chapter twenty-seven [331] of the private and local [general] laws of 1863, entitled "an act to incorporate the Wisconsin mining and smelting company."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter seven [331] of the private and local [general] laws of 1863, is hereby amended, by striking out the name of James H. Mallory, wherever it occurs in said chapter, and substitute [substituting] therefor the name of James A. Malloray. Amendment.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and [after] its passage.

Approved April 2, 1863.