CHAPTER 71.

[Published March 23, 1863.]

AN ACT relating to property seized on attachment.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. In all actions commenced by warrant of attachment, and determined in justices' court, and in which an appeal has been taken from the judgment rendered in justices' court, to the circuit court, when property shall have been seized on the warrant of attachment which is likely to perish or depreciate in value before the probable end of the action, or the keeping of which would be attended with much loss or expense, the circuit court in which any such action shall be pending, or the judge thereof, or the county judge of any county in which any such action may be pending, in vacation, may order the property seized on the warrant of attachment, to be sold by the sheriff or other officer having the custody of the same, in the same manner and on like notice as goods are required to be sold on execution; and the proceeds of such sale shall remain in the hands of the officer, subject to be disposed of as the property would have been if seized upon in specie.

Appeals in actions where property of a perishable nature has been attached.

SECTION 2. The provisions of this act shall apply to all actions heretofore commenced by warrant of attachment, and determined in justices' court, and in which an appeal has been taken from the judgment of the justices' to the circuit court, as well as to those commenced after the passage of this act.
