

CHAPTER 109.

[Published March 8, 1864.]

AN ACT to authorize the county Brown to issue bonds for the erection of county buildings.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That for the purpose of aiding in the erection of a court house and county buildings, the board of supervisors of the county of Brown are hereby authorized to issue the bonds of said county of Brown to an amount not exceeding the sum of twenty thousand dollars, which bonds, or the proceeds thereof, shall be applied in defraying the expenses of erecting a court house and county buildings in said county of Brown, and for no other purpose whatever.

Board of supervisors may issue bonds to amount of $20,000.

SECTION 2. Said bonds shall be of the denomination of one hundred, five hundred, and one thousand dollars, respectively, in such proportions as the board of supervisors shall deem proper, with coupons attached for the payment of interest, at a rate not exceeding seven per centum per annum, and both principal and interest shall be made payable within a period not to exceed twelve years, at the Bank of North America, in the city of New York, and shall be signed by the chairman of the board of supervisors of said county, and countersigned by the clerk of said board, and shall have the seal of said county thereto affixed.

Denomination of bonds, when and where payable, how to be signed, &c.

SECTION 3. The board of supervisors of said county shall annually levy a tax on all the taxable property in said county, sufficient to pay the interest on all the said bonds which at the time of levying the said tax shall be outstanding, and the principal of so many of said bonds as shall mature and become payable in each year; which tax shall be called the county buildings' tax, and shall be paid in money or in the bonds and coupons then due and payable; and the said bonds and coupons, whenever they shall be due and payable, shall be receivable in payment of any tax due to said county, in like manner as county orders.

Tax for interest and principal.

Bonds and coupons receivable for taxes.

SECTION 4. The clerk of the board of supervisors of said county shall keep a faithful record of the bonds of said county which may be issued under the provisions of this act, which record shall contain a statement of the number of bonds issued, and to whom, and the amount of each, respectively, and when they will mature, and the rate of interest thereof, which record shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable hours.

Clerk to keep record of bonds issued, &c.

Commissioners—their duties.

SECTION 5. Talbot C. Dousman and E. Holmes Ellis, of said county, are hereby appointed commissioners, and as such are authorized and required to co-operate with the county board of supervisors of Brown county, in the selection of a site for said county buildings, and in the adoption of the plans and specifications for the construction of the same. In the selection of said site and in the adoption of said plans and specifications, the decision of a majority of the whole board as hereby enlarged, shall be necessary, and such decision or decisions, when made at any legal meeting of said county board of supervisors, shall be final. The commissioners hereby appointed, shall receive the same compensation for their services under this act, as the said supervisors are by law entitled to.
