

CHAPTER 142.

[Published March 21, 1864.]

AN ACT to change the place of holding the next annual town meeting in the town of Oak Grove, in Pierce county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The next annual town meeting for the town of Oak Grove, in Pierce county, shall be held at the school house in school district No. one, in said town, and it shall be the duty of the town clerk thereof to give notice for the holding of such (said) meeting in accordance with the provisions of this act.

To be held in school house in District No. 1.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 18, 1864.

CHAPTER 143.

[Published March 22, 1864.]

AN ACT to provide for the proper reception by the state, of Wisconsin volunteers returning from the field or service of the United States.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Upon the return to this state of any veteran regiment, company or battery of Wisconsin volunteers from the field, or on the expiration of the term of service of any regiment, company or battery of Wisconsin volunteers in the service of the United States, and its return to this state, the governor is hereby authorized to provide for it a suitable reception and entertainment, at an expense not exceeding fifty cents for each man composing such regiment, company or battery.

Reception and entertainment of veteran regiments, &c.

SECTION 2. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, a sum sufficient to pay the expense of any such reception Appropriation.

GENERAL LAWS—CH. 143, 144.

that may have been or may hereafter be ordered by the governor; and the secretary of state is authorized to audit and allow all accounts for the purposes specified in section one of this act, and draw his warrant on the treasury for the same.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 18, 1864.

CHAPTER 144.

[Published March 21, 1864.]

AN ACT to repeal chapter one hundred and twelve of the private and local [general] laws of 1860, entitled "an act to incorporate the village of Pepin."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Repeal.

SECTION 1. Chapter one hundred and twelve of the private and local [general] laws of eighteen hundred and sixty, entitled "an act to incorporate the village of Pepin," is hereby repealed.

Moneys belonging to village to be expended on highways.

SECTION 2. All moneys belonging to said village, now in the hands of any officer thereof, shall, within thirty days after the passage of this act, be paid over to the town treasurer of the town of Pepin, and be expended in the improvement of the highways within the present limits of said village, as other moneys are expended on highways by the proper authorities of said town; and all delinquent taxes hereafter collected by the county treasurer or other county officer of the county of Pepin, for said village, shall be paid to the said town treasurer, and be expended in like manner.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 18, 1864.