

not be levied or the proceeds thereof used for any other purpose.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 2, 1864.

CHAPTER 16.

[Published February 5, 1864.]

AN ACT to authorize school district No. two, in the town of West Bend, in the county of Washington, to borrow money.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. School district number two, (2), in the town of West Bend, in the county of Washington, is hereby authorized to borrow such sum or sums of money, not exceeding two thousand and five hundred dollars, at a rate of interest not exceeding seven per cent. per annum, upon such terms and for such length of time as the board thereof may determine, and to renew such loan from time to time; and the officers are hereby authorized, in the name of said district, to make and execute any bond, pledge or security binding said district and the property thereof, that they may deem proper and advisable to secure the payment of such money borrowed and the interest thereon.

Amount.

SECTION 2. Before any such loan as is provided for in this act, shall be effected, the amount of such loan shall be determined upon by a vote of the electors of said district, at an annual or special meeting thereof, and a special meeting for that purpose may be called in the manner now provided by law for calling special school district meetings.

To be determined by vote.

SECTION 3. Should a loan be effected by the board of said district, under the provisions of this act, all the taxable property of said district at the time of making the loan, and all that may hereafter be added or annexed thereto, shall be holden for the faithful payment of the interest and principal of the money loaned; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of said district, in addition to other taxes of said district, to add, without a vote of said district, a tax sufficient to pay the interest or principal due, according to the conditions of said loan.

All taxable property of district liable.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 2, 1864.

CHAPTER 17.

[Published February 5, 1864.]

AN ACT to authorize the city of Watertown to issue city orders and levy a tax to take up the same, to pay bounties to volunteers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Council authorized to issue orders, and levy tax to pay same.

SECTION 1. The common council of the city of Watertown are hereby authorized to issue city orders, bearing interest, or with interest added in, in amount equal to the bounties pledged to volunteers by a resolution of said common council, passed January 8, 1864; and said common council are hereby authorized to levy a tax upon all the taxable property of the first and second wards of said city, upon all the taxable property of the third, fourth and seventh wards of said city, and upon all the taxable property of the fifth and sixth wards of said city, sufficient to take up said orders.

How tax to be apportioned.

SECTION 2. Such tax shall be apportioned to the first and second wards, the third, fourth and seventh wards, and to the fifth and sixth wards, according to the number of volunteers enlisted and mustered into the service from and credited to them, respectively, upon the draft last heretofore ordered, not exceeding their respective quotas, allowing a bounty of one hundred dollars to each volunteer.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 5, 1864.