CHAPTER 214.

[Published April 5, 1864.]

AN ACT to legalize the acts of certain officers, and to extend the time for the (for the) collection of a tax in the village of Shullsburgh.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The assessment roll of the village of Shullsburgh, in the county of La Fayette, made for said village for the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and the tax list based upon said assessment roll, and the warrant thereto annexed or thereon indorsed, signed by the president and countersigned by the clerk of said village, bearing date the 19th day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, is hereby declared to be legal and valid for all intents and purposes, notwithstanding any and all omissions of any of the officers of said village in not fully complying with the provisions and requirements of the charter incorporating said village.

Assessment roll and warrant legalized.

SECTION 2. The provisions of said village charter relating to the collection of taxes and the distraining and selling of the goods and chattels for the non-payment of the taxes on said tax list, are hereby extended for the period of three months, for the purpose of collecting the taxes on said tax list; and the marshal of said incorporated village is hereby directed and empowered to proceed and collect the taxes on said tax list, in pursuance of the provisions of the charter of said village.

Time to collect taxes extended.

SECTION 3. This act shall be immediately published, and take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 29, 1864.
