them shall be entitled to use the bridge hereinbefore authorized to be constructed across the Mississippi river, in Grant county, by the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien railroad company, in connection with said company, for the passage of their trains, on payment of a reasonable compensation to said company for the use of the same; or in case that at the time of the completion of either the Monroe and Riverside or the Platteville and Calamine railroads, as provided in their respective charters, such bridge shall not have been constructed, or the construction of the same commenced by said Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien railway company, they or either of them may construct said bridge, the right to use the same in connection with both or either of the said companies being granted to the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien railway company, a fair and just compensation being paid for the use of the same to such company or companies as may have built such bridge under the provisions of this section: provided, that this act shall not be so construed as to allow the use of said bridge to any railroad which may be constructed from any point on the state line of Wisconsin and Illinois west of the town of Warren, to said bridge.

Proviso.

SECTION 4. This act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 26, 1864.

CHAPTER 216.

[Published April 8, 1864.]

AN ACT to incorporate the Madison, Lodi and Baraboo railroad company.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Corporators.

SECTION 1. Nathaniel W. Dean, Walter P. Flanders, Patrick A. Bassett, Jonas Narracong, William S. Rathbun, Peter Van Ness, James Seville, Charles H. Williams, Terrill Thomas, James T. Hillier and John B. Dwinnell, and (they and) their successors and associates, to be determined as hereinafter provided, are hereby made, constituted, appointed and declared to be a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of the Madison, Lodi and Baraboo railroad company, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and shall have and enjoy all the privileges, franchises and immunities incident to a corporation. They shall be capable in law of purchasing, holding, selling, leasing and conveying estates, either real, personal or mixed, and may take and hold such estate by gift, grant, purchase, devise or lease. They may make, have and use a common seal, and alter, break or renew the same at pleasure; and by that name they may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered, defend and be defended, contract and be contracted with, and, generally, perform and do all the acts and things which to any corporation it shall lawfully appertain to do and perform.

Name and powers.

SECTION 2. The capital stock of the said company shall be divided into such number of shares, of one hundred dollars each, as the directors shall from time to time determine, not exceeding the entire cost of their railroad, including the stocking and equipment thereof; and the directors shall cause books to be opened at such times and places as they may designate, to receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, under the direction of some one or more of them, or under the direction of such person or persons as they may designate, and shall require five dollars on each share of stock subscribed, to be paid at the time of subscribing.

Capital stock.

Opening of books of subscription.

SECTION 3. That the persons named in the first section of this act, shall be the first directors of said company, and shall hold their offices until other directors are elected by the stockholders, and shall possess all the powers conferred by this act upon the board of directors elected by the stockholders, as hereinafter provided; and as soon as five hundred shares of the capital stock of said company shall be subscribed, and five dollars on each share actually paid in, the said directors shall close the books of subscription, and receive no more subscriptions until after the election of directors by the stockholders; and they shall immediately give not less than thirty days' notice in a newspaper, in some county into which said road runs, of an election of nine directors by the stockholders, at some time and place to be designated by them; and the directors thus elected shall hold their offices until the next annual meeting of the stockholders for the election of directors, and until other directors are elected.

Powers of directors.

SECTION 4. All of the affairs of said company shall be managed by a board of nine directors, who shall be stockholders, and the board of directors is hereby invested with all the powers of the corporation. They shall be chosen annually by ballot at the annual meeting of the stockholders, which shall be held at such time and place as the directors shall from time to time prescribe, and the same notice of every such election shall be given as is herein required to be given of the first election of directors. The directors shall be elected by the stockholders, and at such election and at all meetings of the stockholders, the votes shall be delivered in person or by proxy, duly authorized, and every stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock by him held; and in all elections for directors, those stockholders, equal to the number of directors to be elected, having the greatest number of votes, shall be deemed and declared duly elected. The elections shall be conducted in such manner as shall be prescribed by the by-laws of the company. If for any cause an election of directors should not be had at the time when by the provisions of this act it should be had, the same may be held at any other time on thirty days' notice given as aforesaid, and until after such election be had, the directors of the preceding year shall continue to act, and the corporation hereby created shall not forfeit or lose any of its privileges, franchises or immunities by reason of the irregularity or want of any such election.

Failure to elect, not a loss of franchises.

Quorum, and meetings.

SECTION 5. A majority of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business. They shall meet at such times and places and be convened in such manner as they shall decide upon. They shall appoint one of their own number to be president, who shall serve for one year, or until other directors are elected. The president when present, shall preside at all meetings of the directors and stockholders, and in case of his absence, the directors present may appoint a president pro tem. The board of directors shall appoint a secretary, treasurer and President.

Other officers.

such engineers, superintendents, agents and such other officers as they may find necessary, fix their compensation and duties, and demand adequate security for the discharge of their respective duties and trusts, and fill any vacancy which may occur in their own board. The directors shall have power to reopen the books for subscriptions to the capital stock of the company, or open new books under their own direction, or the direction of any one or more of them, or under the direction of such person or persons as they may designate, to determine the amount of installments to be paid from time to time on such subscriptions, and to forfeit to the use of the company the share or shares of any persons failing to pay any installments, as also all previous payments thereon, and also in their discretion, on the request of any stockholder, to cancel his stock and to refund to such stockholder the amount paid by him, or any part of it. The directors shall have power to regulate tolls and charges for the transportation of freight and passengers, not in conflict with or repugnant to the laws of this state, and to make such covenants, contracts and agreements with any person or persons, copartnership or corporation whatever, as the construction of their railroad or its management and the convenience and interests of the company may require; and powers are hereby conferred on such company in their behalf, to make and establish such by-laws, rules, regulations and orders, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state, as they may think proper for the well ordering of the affairs of said company, and the same from time to time alter, amend or repeal, and, in general, to superintend and direct all the operations, receipts, disbursements and all other affairs of said company.

Further powers of directors.

By-laws, &c.

SECTION 6. All shares of stock in this company owned by any person shall be deemed personal property, and shall be transferable in such manner and form, at such place and under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the by-laws of said company.

Stock deemed personal property.

SECTION 7. Special meetings of the stockholders may be called by order of the board of directors, or by the stockholders holding one-half the capital stock, on like notice as that required for annual meetings of the stockholders, specifying the object of the meeting.

Special meetings

May locate and
construct road,
&c.

SECTION 8. The said company shall have power to locate and construct a railroad, with one or more railways or tracks, from Watertown or Madison, via Lodi and Merrimac, to Baraboo, in the county of Sauk; and said company shall have power to transport, take and carry property and persons upon said road by the power and force of steam, of animals or any mechanical or other power, or of any combination of them, and to make and construct all such turnouts, side tracks and connecting tracks as they shall think will promote the interests of the company, and to erect, construct and use all such depots, station houses, warehouses, car houses and shops, engine houses and shops, and all other fixtures useful for the accommodation of said company and its road, and those using it; to manufacture or purchase and own all necessary engines, tenders, cars and other conveniences for running said railroad.

May borrow money, &c.

SECTION 9. The said company are hereby authorized] and fully empowered, in its corporate capacity, to borrow any sum or sums of money from any person or persons, corporation or body politic of any kind, and to make, execute and deliver, in or out of the state, all necessary writings, notes, bonds, mortgages or other papers and securities, in amount or kind as may be deemed expedient by said corporation, in consideration of any such loan or in discharge of any liabilities that it may incur in the construction, repair, equipment or running of said road; and to make, execute, sell and deliver, at private or public sale, in or out of this state, bonds in such sums and in such amounts, payable at such times, secured by a mortgage or mortgages upon the whole or any part of the railroad of said company, with its equipments, fixtures and appurtenances; and the powers of the said corporation for the purposes aforesaid, and for all purposes necessary to carry out the objects of said company, are hereby ratified and confirmed, and the contracts and official acts of said company declared binding in law and equity upon such corporations, and upon all other parties to such contracts.

Right of way.

SECTION 10. The said company shall have the right and authority to construct their said railroad upon and along, across, under or over any public or private highway, road, street, plankroad or railroad, if the same be necessary; but the said company shall restore such highway, road, street, plankroad or railroad to its former state, as near as may be, or so as not to impair the usefulness of the same; and the said company shall have the right and authority to erect and maintain all the necessary bridges for the use of their said railroad over any stream of water or water-course, at such points of crossing the same as they shall locate the railroad, with all necessary abutments, piers or other foundations.

SECTION 11. It shall be lawful for said company, their officers, engineers and agents, to enter upon any land for the purpose of exploring, surveying and locating the route of said railroad, doing thereto no unnecessary damage; and when the route of said road shall be determined by said company, it shall be lawful for them, their agents, officers, engineers, contractors, employees and servants, at any time to enter upon, take possession of and use any such land, not exceeding one hundred feet in width, along the line of said route, and also such lands adjacent to the line of said road, beyond the said limits of one hundred feet, as the chief engineer of said company shall, in writing to be signed by him, decide and declare to be necessary for the use of said company, for the purpose of erecting depot buildings, station houses, or other fixtures and grounds about the same, for the operation and business of said road, or for making drains and giving a proper direction to water-courses, or of diverting or changing the channel of water-courses across or along said road, or for the purpose of removing such substances and things as may endanger, obstruct or interfere with the free use of said road, or for the purpose of making deep cuts or excavations, or for the purpose of depositing earth, gravel or stone, or for the purpose of obtaining earth or gravel for embankments, structures or superstructures necessary to the construction or repair of said road, subject, however, to the payment of such compensation as they [the] company may have agreed to pay therefor, or as shall be ascertained in the manner hereinafter provided; and when such compensation shall have been paid or tendered, the title to such land shall vest in said company in fee simple, and the said company shall have the right to hold the same; and whenever in the opinion of the company the same, or any part thereof, shall no longer be necessary for the purposes for which the same was taken, the said company is hereby authorized to lease or sell the same, or any part thereof, in fee simple.

SECTION 12. The said company shall, if possible, agree with the owner or owners of any and all lands upon which, by the provisions of this act, they are authorized, after the route of the said road shall be determined, to enter, and which they are authorized to take possession of and use, and which, according to the aforesaid provisions, shall vest in said company, for the purposes of said railroad, as to the amount of compensation to be paid for said lands, whether such person shall own or possess the legal or equitable title to the same, or any lien or incumbrance on the same; and if such owner, or the person or persons owning or possessing such legal or equitable title, lien or incumbrance shall be a minor, non compos mentis, insane, or a married woman, or under any legal disability, then with the guardian of such minor, non compos mentis, or insane person, or husband of such married woman; and if said company cannot agree with such owner, guardian or husband, said company shall, by its agent, offer to pay such owner, guardian or husband, if resident of the county in which such lands shall be, or if not such resident, to their agent, if any in such county, such sum as the company deems reasonable; and if such offer of compensation be neglected or refused, then such question of compensation shall be decided by three commissioners, as follows, viz.: The said company may apply to the judge of the circuit court for the ninth judicial circuit, or to a justice of the supreme court, either in term time or in vacation, for the appointment of three commissioners to decide upon the amount of compensation to be paid to the several parties with whom the said company shall have been unable to agree, as aforesaid. They shall give notice of their application for the appointment of such commissioners, by publishing the same three weeks successively in a newspaper printed in some county through which said road shall run, and which notice, having been duly published, the said judge or justice shall appoint three commissioners, who shall proceed to examine the premises, having first given such notice as they may deem reasonable to such owner, guardian or husband, if resident of the county in which such lands shall lie, and having first determined that it was necessary to take said land, shall make an award of the the county in which such lands lie, shall be sufficient evidence of such title; and the said company shall have full power and authority pending all such proceedings and until they shall refuse to pay the compensation so to be ascertained as aforesaid, to use, occupy and enjoy the peaceable and uninterrupted possession of such lands for all the lawful purposes of said corporation, and they shall not, while such proceedings are pending, nor until such refusal, be disturbed in such possession, use, occupancy and enjoyment by any proceeding either in law or in equity, and said company shall not be liable to pay such compensation until the same shall be demanded at their office.

Competency of witnesses, &c.

SECTION 13. No person shall be incompetent to be a witness or give testimony in any suit or proceedings at law or in equity, in which the said railroad company shall be a party, nor shall any person be disqualified from discharging the duties of a judge, justice of the peace or juror in any suit or proceeding, for the reason that such person is a stockholder in said company.

Freight and fares

SECTION 14. On the completion of said railroad, or any section of the track not less than four miles, it shall and may be lawful for the company to demand and receive such sums of money for the transportation of persons or property, and the storage of property, as they shall from time to time think reasonable, not in conflict with or repugnant to the laws of this state.

Penalty for injury to road.

SECTION 15. If any person shall willfully and knowingly injure or destroy the railroad so to be constructed by said company, or shall willfully and maliciously place any obstruction or thing upon the track of said road, such person or persons so offending shall each of them for every offense, forfeit and pay to said company the sum of fifty dollars, and in case any damage shall ensue, an additional sum equal to three times the amount of damages caused by such offense, which may be recovered in the name of said company by action of debt, in any court having competent jurisdiction, in the county wherein the offense shall be committed, and shall also be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to indictment, and upon conviction of any such offense, shall be punished by fine and imprisonment, or either, at the discretion of the court.

SECTION 16. Said company, before opening their road through inclosed grounds, shall erect such fences as shall preserve such inclosures entire, unless they shall otherwise agree with the owner or occupant; and shall before they commence to use their road as a railroad, erect a good and sufficient fence on both sides of said road through all such inclosed grounds, and shall maintain the same unless they shall otherwise agree as aforesaid.

Company to maintain fences.

SECTION 17. The first meeting of the directors and of the stockholders of said company, shall be called by at least a majority of the directors named in this act. A concurrence of a majority of the directors shall be necessary in order to adopt, establish, alter, modify, amend, rescind or abolish any one regulation or by-law of said company.

First meeting of directors.

SECTION 18. This act is hereby declared to be a public act, and shall be favorably construed to effect the purposes herein intended, and copies thereof printed by authority of the state, shall be received as evidence thereof in all cases; and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Act to be favorably construed.

SECTION 19. The privileges, immunities and franchises hereby granted, shall cease and be null and void, unless the said company shall, within five years, construct and put in operation at least ten miles of their road.

When rights to cease.

SECTION 20. The board of directors hereby created, or hereafter to be elected, may from time to time determine and fix the number of directors to be elected at any election next to be had, or may increase their number at any time, so that the number shall never be less than five nor more than fifteen.
