

which shall be in full payment for all services performed by said architect; and the commissioners may, if in their judgment the public good requires it, discharge such architect and employ another in his place and stead, in which case the compensation of said architect for services rendered, shall be adjusted upon the same terms as are heretofore provided for the compensation of the architect, having regard to the amount of services rendered.

SECTION 7. The architect employed under this act is prohibited from receiving, directly or indirectly, any commission, bonus, reward or compensation from the contractor or contractors who may be employed in the construction of the work contemplated by this act, or of any part thereof, or from any one in the employ of or furnishing materials to such contractor or contractors.

Architect to receive no bonus.

SECTION 8. In case of violation of the foregoing section seven, the architect shall be discharged, and he shall forfeit all claim and right to compensation for services rendered up to the time of such discharge.

Forfeiture.

SECTION 9. This act shall not be construed so as to permit the foregoing named commissioners to let the contract herein provided for, for a larger sum than thirty-five thousand dollars, and any contract by them for any work herein specified, for a larger sum than thirty-five thousand dollars, shall have no binding force or effect upon this state.

Construction.

SECTION 10. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 2, 1864.

CHAPTER 346.

[Published April 21, 1864.]

AN ACT to legalize the official acts of the assessor of the town of Buena Vista, Richland county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. That all of the official acts of the assessor of the town of Buena Vista, Richland county, and Legalized.

the assessment made by him for the year 1863, are hereby legalized and made as binding and of as full force as if all the requirements of the law had been complied with.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1864.

---

CHAPTER 347.

[Published April 22, 1864.]

AN ACT to amend chapter 327 of the private and local laws of 1856, entitled "an act to consolidate and amend the act to incorporate the city of Watertown, and the several acts amendatory thereof."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Licenses.

SECTION 1. All licenses for taverns, saloons, groceries, and for the sale of strong, spirituous, ardent or intoxicating drinks or liquors, and all other licenses except for exhibitions, shall be issued for one year, and shall expire on the first Monday of May, in each year, except in special cases the common council may issue the same for a fractional portion of a year, to expire on that day.

City marshal to be appointed.

SECTION 2. The city marshal shall be appointed by the common council, and shall hold his office during their pleasure, and in addition to his duties now provided by law, he shall perform such other duties and execute such orders as the common council shall direct.

Sidewalks may be repaired without petition therefor.

SECTION 3. The street commissioners of the several wards shall have power to cause repairs to be made to sidewalks within their respective wards without any petition or application for the same from lot owners, and may make the expense thereof chargeable to the adjoining lots.

Approved April 2, 1864.