

upon a loan from the drainage fund to the trustees of Plateville academy, in the county of Grant.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1864.

CHAPTER 374.

[Published April 25, 1864.]

AN ACT authorizing the assessment and collection of taxes on the improvements on lands entered under the act of congress, entitled "an act to secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The improvements on all lands situated in this state, which have been or may herereafter be entered under the provisions of the act of congress, entitled "an act to secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain," approved May 20th, 1862, and which shall be actually occupied and improved by the person so entering the same, or his heirs, shall hereafter be subject to taxation, and the valuation of such improvements shall be assessed as personal property. All taxes levied thereon shall be collected out of the personal property of the occupants of such lands, and in no other manner.

Subject to taxation.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 2, 1864.