

organized and had its existence, except so far as relates to the redemption of its circulating notes, and they may be retired by the new association in the mode and manner prescribed by the general banking law of this state, and the acts amendatory thereof: provided, however, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to release the new association from the payment of the state tax, as now provided by law, until eighty per cent. of the circulating notes of said Bank of Juneau shall have been retired, pursuant to section eleven of chapter seventy one of the revised statutes, and the acts amendatory thereof. State tax.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 24, 1865.

CHAPTER 205.

[Published May 4, 1865.]

AN ACT to incorporate the Depere and New York iron company.

(See supplement to local laws.)

CHAPTER 206.

[Published March 27, 1865.]

AN ACT for the relief of the town of Marcellon, in the county of Columbia.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. James H. Bonney, Hiram Bonney, William Ensign, Archibald Brice and Rufus Comstock, or a majority of them, are hereby created commissioners for the purpose of transacting all business and performing all duties now required by law to be transacted and performed by the supervisors of the town of Mar- Commissioners—their powers.

cellon, in the county of Columbia, until said town shall have elected a board of town supervisors, and until they shall have been duly qualified according to law.

Validity of acts of commissioners

SECTION 2. All acts of such commissioners appointed by the foregoing section, which they or a majority of them shall perform in accordance with law, for the purpose above stated, shall be and are hereby declared as valid to all intents and purposes, as if performed by the supervisors of said town, any previous enactments to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 25, 1865.

CHAPTER 207.

[Published May 4, 1865.]

AN ACT relative to the disposition and expenditure of license moneys in the town of West Bend, in the county of Washington.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

To be expended on sidewalks.

SECTION 1. All moneys derived or hereafter to be derived from licensing the sale of strong, spirituous, ardent or intoxicating liquors, in the town of West Bend, in the county of Washington, shall be applied and expended under the direction of the town board of supervisors of said town, in the making, building and construction of sidewalks in the village of West Bend, in said town of West Bend.

SECTION 2. This act is hereby declared to be a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 25, 1865.