CHAPTER 210.

[Published May 6, 1865.]

AN ACT to regulate the platting of lots and parcels of land in the city of Watertown, and to provide for correcting imperfect descriptions of real estate therein.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Lots may be surveyed and plotted.

SECTION 1. The common council of the city of Watertown are hereby authorized, in such cases as they deem necessary, to cause accurate surveys to be made, or correct descriptions without survey, where the same is practicable, of lots or parcels of land in said city, of which the descriptions are imperfect, for the purpose of having a brief and definite description in the assessment of such lots or parcels of land, and to cause accurate plats thereof to be made and certified by the surveyor. Such plats, when approved by the common council, shall be filed in the office of the city clerk, and a copy thereof recorded in the office of register of deeds of the proper county. The descriptions thereon may be marked and designated in such manner as shall be approved by the common council.

To be approved by council and recorded.

Landmarks.

SECTION 2. Said common council may cause to be established in said city, such permanent landmarks as they may deem necessary.

To be evidence.

SECTION 3. The plats and landmarks so made and established, shall be prima facie evidence of the same, and of the matters and things therein, in all cases in which they shall be drawn into controversy in all courts of this state.

Streets of new plats to correspond with old.

SECTION 4. Every individual or company of individuals, or body corporate, owning a lot or tract of land
