

CHAPTER 406.

[Published May 27, 1865.]

AN ACT to authorize the county board of supervisors of Door county, to levy a special tax for county road purposes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of county supervisors of Door county are hereby authorized and required to levy, annually, a special county road tax, to be expended in opening the county roads, as hereinafter provided: provided, that said supervisors shall not levy a greater sum than three thousand dollars in any one year.

Road tax of $3,000 may be annually raised.

SECTION 2. The taxes herein provided to be levied, shall be expended by the county board of supervisors in cutting out the timber four rods wide on all the main traveled roads in and through said county, and building bridges and building corduroys where the same are needed upon said roads.

How to be expended.

SECTION 3. The county board of supervisors at their annual meeting, in each year, shall provide for the expenditure of the county road tax herein authorized to be levied. They may make contracts, appoint road commissioners, and shall require good and sufficient bonds from all persons so contracted with or appointed by them, for the due execution of the same, respectively, and shall make such other provisions, as in their judgment shall best secure the faithful execution of the work required by this act.

Commissioners, &c.

SECTION 4. The board of supervisors before allowing any account for work and labor done under the provisions of this act, shall proceed to view the same in their respective supervisor districts, and upon their acceptance of the work and labor so done, shall audit and allow the account therefor.

Work to be reviewed before paid for.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 8, 1865.
