

CHAPTER 138.

[Published April 19, 1867.]

AN ACT to amend section 3 of chapter 56 of the private and local [general] laws of 1866, entitled "an act to amend section 76 of chapter 28 of the revised statutes, entitled 'of the school and university lands,' and to direct payment to be made from the general fund of all expenses incurred on account of the trust funds of this state, and all the lands belonging to such funds."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3, chapter 56, of the general laws of 1866 is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: "All sums of money hereafter received as penalty and damages for trespass on any of said lands, shall be paid into the general fund, and all sums received on sale of logs, lumber, shingles or other articles or materials seized on said lands, or recovered in legal proceedings from the trespassers on said lands, shall be paid into the respective funds to which the lands belong on which such trespasses were committed."

Into what funds penalties and moneys received on sale of logs, &c. to be paid.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 11, 1867.

CHAPTER 139.

[Published April 18, 1867.]

AN ACT to reduce the price of swamp and overflowed lands in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The commissioners of the school and university lands are hereby authorized and required to reduce (at once) the price of all swamp and overflowed lands that have once been sold for one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, or more, and have since been forfeited, and are now held by the state.

Price of certain swamp lands to be reduced.