

CHAPTER 26.

[Published March 11, 1867.]

AN ACT to change the times of holding court in the eleventh judicial circuit, and to dispense with grand and petit juries at certain terms of court.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

General terms.

SECTION 1. The general terms of the circuit court in and for the several counties of the eleventh judicial circuit, shall be held at the times hereinafter mentioned, to wit: In the county of Douglas, on the first Monday of February and on the first Monday of August, in each year; in the county of Bayfield, on the third Monday of February and on the third Monday of August, in each year; in the county of Polk, on the second Monday of April and on the fourth Monday of October, in each year.

Douglas.

Bayfield.

Polk.

Return of process, &amp;c.

SECTION 2. All writs, summons, process, indictments, recognizances, continuances, motions, notices and other proceedings now subsisting in any pending suit or proceeding in the circuit court of the circuit aforesaid, and relating or being returnable to any subsequent general term of said court, shall be deemed to relate and to be returnable to the term next in course in the proper county under the provisions of this act, with force and effect in no wise impaired by reason of anything in this act contained.

No jury for certain terms, unless ordered by judge.

SECTION 3. There shall be no grand or petit jury drawn, summoned or impaneled for the February term of the circuit court for said county of Bayfield, nor for the October term of said court for the said county of Polk: provided, the judge of said circuit may in his discretion, by an order in writing, to be filed in the circuit court clerk's office of the county to be affected by said order, at least twenty days before the commencement of the term in this section mentioned for such county, direct the drawing and summoning of a grand and petit jury for such term in either of the counties in this section mentioned, and thereupon a grand and petit jury shall be drawn, summoned and impaneled accordingly, as provided by law in other cases.

SECTION 4. So much of any law as specifies any other times for holding the general terms of the circuit court in said circuit than is by this act provided, is hereby repealed. Repealed.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 7, 1867.
