

CHAPTER 57.

[Published April 1, 1867.]

AN ACT to amend section 29, chapter 112, of the revised statutes, entitled "of guardians and wards."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twenty-nine (29) of chapter one hundred and twelve (112) of the revised statutes, entitled "of guardians and wards," is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: "The marriage of any female who is under guardianship as a minor, shall terminate the right and authority of the guardian as to the custody and tuition of the minor, but not as to the care and management of her estate; and the guardian of any insane person, spendthrift or other person may be discharged by the judge of the county court, when it shall appear to him, on the application of the ward or otherwise, that such guardianship is no longer necessary." Marriage of female ward to terminate guardianship.

SECTION 2. The county judge may in his discretion, upon the application of such ward after her marriage, discharge such guardian, and require him to account to said judge, and pay over and deliver to such ward all the estate, moneys, credits and effects remaining in his hands, or due from him on such settlement, or may in his discretion, upon such application, discharge such guardian and appoint another in his place, who shall give bond, as required by law in other cases, and to whom such estate, moneys, credits and effects shall be paid over and delivered, and who shall have the authority conferred by this act upon a guardian after the marriage of his ward." Guardian on discharge to pay over moneys, &c.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 28, 1867.
