CHAPTER 17.

[Published March 4, 1870.]

AN ACT to provide for the preservation of certain records and proceedings in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of Fond du Lac county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The clerk of the circuit court of Fond du Lac county is hereby authorized and required, without delay, to transcribe and record in a suitable book to be by said clerk for this purpose provided, all the records, papers, tract books, vouchers and proceedings in a certain action heretofore pending in the district court of the territory of Wisconsin, in the county of Brown, in chancery, and now on file in the office of the clerk of the circuit court aforesaid, wherein Mason C. Darling was the plaintiff, and James Duane Doty and others were defendants, praying a partition and sale of the lands of the Fond du Lac Land Company.

Clerk shall transcribe records.

Shall copy and redraw maps.

SECTION 2. Whenever the maps and charts constituting a part of the records and proceedings mentioned in section one of this act shall become obliterated or worn by use or other causes, it shall be lawful for the clerk of the circuit court aforesaid, to cause such maps and charts to be copied and re-drawn, to the end that such record shall be preserved.

Shall certify that he has compared same.

SECTION 3. Whenever the aforesaid records shall be transcribed and re-drawn as provided by this act, the clerk shall enter upon the record thereof that he has carefully compared such record with the original of such paper or record, and that it is a true copy of such original and of the whole thereof; and in case of the loss or destruction of the original of such record, such recorded copy duly certified as aforesaid, shall be received in evidence in all courts of this state, with like force and effect as the original might have been.

His fees.

SECTION 4. The clerk of the circuit court performing the services required in section one of this act shall be entitled to the fees prescribed by law for like services, to be audited and paid by the board of supervisors of Fond du Lac county, in the manner provided by law, and for the services required by section two of this act, such compensation shall be allowed by the board of supervisors aforesaid as shall appear just and proper.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 2, 1870.
