

CHAPTER 22.

[Published March 5, 1870.]

AN ACT to reconstruct the third judicial circuit, and fix the time of holding the terms thereof.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Detached.

SECTION 1. The county of Winnebago, after the fifteenth day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy, shall be taken from and detached from the tenth judicial circuit, and shall thereafter be annexed to and constitute and be a part of the third judicial circuit.

General terms—when and where held.

SECTION 2. The general terms of the circuit court for the third judicial circuit, except as hereinafter provided, shall be as follows: In the county of Marquette, on the first Tuesday after the fourth Monday in May, and the first Tuesday after the fourth Monday in November in each year: provided, that at the May term of said court in the county of Marquette for the year 1870, no grand or petit jury shall be summoned. In the county of Green Lake, on the second Monday of January and the first Monday of June of each year. In the county of Dodge, on the fourth Monday of September and the fourth Monday of February in each year. In the county of Washington, on the third Monday of March and the third Monday of October of each year. In the county of Ozaukee, on the first Monday of April and the first Monday of November in each year. In the county of Winnebago, on the third Monday of April, the first Monday of September and the second Monday of December of each year: provided, nothing herein contained shall be construed to interfere with the March term of the said court now provided by law to be held in the year 1870, in the county of Winnebago.

Every general term to be also special term.

SECTION 3. Every term of said circuit court in the counties of Winnebago, Dodge and Green Lake, shall also be a special term for said counties of Winnebago, Dodge and Green Lake. And all actions, motions, proceedings or other business now pending, or which may hereafter arise in any or either of said counties in said circuit, and not requiring a jury, may be heard, tried and determined or otherwise acted upon or disposed of at any or either of said special terms, in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if the same were heard, tried and determined or otherwise acted upon or disposed of in the county wherein the same are now pending or may hereafter arise, and when any cases or matters are pending in either of said counties different from the county in which the special term is held, the clerk of the court where said special term is held, shall certify the orders, judgments and other papers to the clerk of the circuit court of the county where said causes or matters are pending, and the same shall be filed and entered by such clerk in the same manner as if said cause or matter had been heard or determined by the circuit court at a term thereof held in that county.

SECTION 4. The provisions of all laws now in force, or which shall hereafter be enacted relative to or authorizing the appointment of phonographic reporters for the counties of Green Lake and Dodge, in the third judicial circuit, shall in all respects and particulars, apply to the county of Winnebago.

Provisions relating to reporters to apply.

SECTION 5. All writs, indictments, recognizances, summons, process and other proceedings now made returnable by law of this state or practice of court, or by any court to the terms of the circuit court of said county of Winnebago, as of the tenth judicial circuit, shall be returnable to the terms of the circuit court of said county of Winnebago as of the third judicial circuit, as the same are now fixed by law, and all adjournments, appearances, continuances, motions and notices of any proceedings in the circuit court of said county of Winnebago, as of the tenth judicial circuit made or taken to any term of a date subsequent to the term or time when this act shall take effect, shall be held to be made and taken for the time fixed by law and this act, for holding the terms of said court for said Winnebago county, as of the third judicial circuit.

How writs, etc., to be returnable.

SECTION 6. This act shall not affect any act done or right accrued or established, or any writ, proceeding or prosecution had or commenced in any civil or criminal cause or proceeding previous to the time when this act shall take effect, but every such act, right and proceeding shall be and remain as valid and effectual as if this act had not been passed.

Limitation of act.

Repealed.

SECTION 7. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with or contravening any of the provisions of this act are hereby repealed so far as they conflict with or contravene the same.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 4, 1870.

CHAPTER 23.

[Published March 5, 1870.]

AN ACT in relation to records and decisions in the supreme court.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Opinions and decisions to be part of the record.

SECTION 1. Each and every written opinion or decision of the supreme court of this state, now on file or hereafter filed with the clerk of said court in any suit or action heretofore decided, or which shall hereafter be decided by said court and which shall be certified to the supreme court of the United States, shall constitute and be held in all courts and places to be a part of the record of the suit or action in said court in which it shall have been or shall be given and filed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 4, 1870.
