

and then only in cases when the defendant or defendants have appeared and put in an answer or demurrer, the party against whom judgments shall be rendered shall have contested some question which shall be declared against him or them, and neither this act, or chapter thirty (30) of the general laws of 1870, shall have the effect to deprive parties from recovering attorney's fees when they were before entitled to the same in courts of record.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 24, 1871.

CHAPTER 143.

[Published March 30, 1871.]

AN ACT to provide for the collection of judgments in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Tax for payment of judgments to be ordered by supervisors.

SECTION 1. No judgment, award or finding, of or for any sum of money against any town, by any court or judge, shall be entered upon the tax roll thereof by the clerk thereof, unless upon the order of the supervisors of such town.

Limitation of time to make order.

SECTION 2. The supervisors of any town shall within sixty days after notice of the rendition of any judgment or award against the town, by any court, order the clerk thereof to put the same in the next tax roll of the town: provided, however, that in all cases of the rendition of any judgment, award or finding by any court previous to the passage and publication of this act, such town shall have sixty days from and after the time this act takes effect, to appeal therefrom or make such order.

Repealed.

SECTION 3. All acts or parts of acts contravening any of the provisions of this act are repealed, so far as they affect or contravene any of the provisions of this act, and no further.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 24, 1871.

CHAPTER 144.

[Published March 29, 1871.]

AN ACT to repeal chapter 86 of the general laws of 1870, entitled "an act to protect the people of Wisconsin from empiricism and imposition in the practice of medicine, surgery and midwifery."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 86 of the general laws of 1870, Repealed. entitled "an act to protect the people of Wisconsin from empiricism and imposition in the practice of medicine and surgery," is hereby repealed.

Approved March 24, 1871.

CHAPTER 145.

[Published March 29, 1871.]

AN ACT for the relief of the Adams County Agricultural and Mechanical Association.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The secretary of state is hereby directed to audit to the Adams County Agricultural and Mechanical Association the sum of one hundred dollars for the year 1868, the same as if their returns had been duly and properly made. May audit sum.