CHAPTER 106.

[Published March 14, 1873.]

AN ACT to organize the county of Ashland for judicial purposes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate assembly, do enact as follows:

Organized for judicial purposes.

SECTION 1. On and after the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, the county of Ashland shall be fully organized for judicial purposes, as well as for all county purposes, and shall no longer be attached to the county of Bayfield for judicial purposes.

Terms of court fixed.

SECTION 2. After the organization of said county as above provided, there shall be two terms of the circuit court held therein in each year, at the following times, to wit: On the first Tuesday after the first Monday of January, and on the third Monday of July. But there shall be no petit jury drawn or summoned for the January term of the circuit court for the said county of Ashland: provided, the judge of the circuit of which said county is a part, may in his discretion by an order to be filed with the clerk of the circuit court of said county, at least thirty days before any such January term, direct the drawing and summoning of such jury for such term, and thereupon a jury shall be drawn and summoned accordingly, as provided by law in other cases.

When petit jury
to be summoned.

Not to abridge power of the judge.

SECTION 3. Nothing contained in this act, nor in any act heretofore passed, relating specially to courts in the eleventh judicial circuit, shall be construed to abridge the power of the judge under any other law to direct the drawing and summoning of a grand jury, nor of the court to issue a special venire in the cases provided by law.

SECTION 4. To make effectual the organization aforesaid, and to provide necessary county officers for the purposes thereof, until such officers can be duly elected, it is hereby made the duty of the governor to appoint for said county the following county officers, to-wit: A clerk of the circuit court, a district attorney and a sheriff, and any person who shall be so appointed to either of said offices shall duly qualify therefor, in the same manner as is provided by law in the case of appointment thereto to fill a vacancy, and shall enter upon the duties of his office on the said first day of August, 1873, or as soon thereafter as he shall have duly qualified, and shall hold his office until his successor to be elected for a full term at the next general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November shall be duly elected and qualified, and said appointments by the governor shall be deemed and construed as appointments to fill vacancies in office.

Clerk, attorney and sheriff to be appointed by the governor.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 11, 1873.
