

CHAPTER 17.

[Published February 10, 1874.]

AN ACT to amend section one of chapter 100, of the general laws of 1867, relating to the lien law, extending the provisions of said law to Outagamie county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter 100, of the general laws of 1867, entitled an act to amend section one of chapter 66 of the general laws of 1866, entitled an act to amend chapter 517, general laws of 1865, entitled an act to amend section one of chapter 154 of the general laws of 1862, entitled an act providing for a lien for labor and services upon logs and lumber in certain counties, is hereby amended, by inserting the word "Outagamie" after the word "Oconto," so as to read as follows: Section 1. Any person or corporation, that shall furnish any supplies, or that may do or perform any labor or services in cutting, falling, hauling, driving, running, rafting, booming, cribbing or towing any logs or timber in the counties of Pierce, St. Croix, Polk, Dallas, Burnett, Douglas, La Pointe, Ashland, Jackson, Clark, La Crosse, Marathon, Portage, Wood, Manitowoc, Shawano, Door, Kewaunee, Oconto, Outagamie and Brown, in this state, shall have a lien thereon for the amount due for such supplies, labor or services, and the same shall take precedence of all other claims thereon. The provisions of this act shall apply to all such labor or services that may have been done prior to the passage of this act as far as the provisions of this act can be made applicable thereto, and the person, company or corporation that may have done or performed the same, can comply with the provisions of this act.

Extending provisions of lien laws to Outagamie county.

To what provisions of this act shall apply.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 9, 1866.
