

and the said county of Marathon is hereby authorized and empowered to hold and control the railroad stock taken in consideration of said acts, for the benefit of said county, as by law provided in such cases.

County to hold and control the railroad stock.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 30, 1874.

CHAPTER 8.

[Published February 4, 1874.]

AN ACT authorizing the town of Kaukauna, Outagamie county, to borrow money.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors of the town of Kaukauna, in the county of Outagamie and state of Wisconsin, are hereby authorized to borrow, upon the faith and credit of said town, a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, for the purpose of defraying the expense necessarily incurred in building and repairing bridges in said town. The interest thereon shall be at a rate not exceeding ten per cent., and shall be payable annually, and the principal shall become due and payable one thousand dollars in one year, one thousand dollars in two years, and so on; one thousand dollars to fall due and payable annually.

Town board authorized to borrow five thousand dollars.

SECTION 2. The said board of supervisors are hereby authorized to give note or notes, bond or bonds on behalf of said town, in accordance with the terms above granted, and said board of supervisors shall during the continuance of said loan raise by tax upon the taxable property in said town, a sum of money sufficient to pay off one thousand dollars of the principal annually and interest on the whole amount outstanding; and the clerk of said town is hereby authorized and required in each and every year during the continuance of said loan to insert in the tax roll of said town the amounts aforesaid, and the same shall be collected as other town taxes, and when so collected shall be applied to the object herein specified and to no other.

Principal and interest how and when paid.

LAWS OF WISCONSIN—CH. 9-10.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved February 3, 1874.

CHAPTER 9.

[Published February 4, 1874.]

AN ACT to authorize the town of Grafton, in Ozaukee county, to issue bonds for the purpose of building a bridge across the Milwaukee river, in the village of Grafton in said county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Town board authorized to issue bonds for twelve thousand dollars.

SECTION 1. The town of Grafton, in the county of Ozaukee, by her board of supervisors is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds to the amount not exceeding twelve hundred dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, payable in one year from the date of the passage of this act, for the purpose of building a bridge across the Milwaukee river, on Bridge street, in the village of Grafton, in said county, where the old bridge is now located.

Bonds, how and when paid.

SECTION 2. The money for the payment of said bonds shall be levied and collected at the same time, together with the general and local taxes in the year of 1874, in the same manner as provided by law for the levying and collection of taxes.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 3, 1874.

CHAPTER 10.

[Published February 4, 1874.]

AN ACT to repeal chapter 376, private and local laws of 1853, authorizing John W. Steward to build and maintain a dam in the Pecatonica river, in the county of La Fayette.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Ch. 376, P. & L. laws 1853 repealed.

SECTION 1. Chapter 376 of the private and local laws of 1853, and all acts and parts of acts amendatory thereof, as explanatory thereto, are hereby repealed.