CHAPTER 103.

AN ACT to appropriate a certain sum of money therein named to James Quirk.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Appropriated. SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated to James Quirk, out of any money now in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of seventy-eight (78) dollars, with interest from July 6, 1874, that being the balance due for superintending the construction of sidewalks and gutters around the Capitol Park, from April 24 to June 22, 1874, done in pursuance of an appointment by Governor Taylor.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 2, 1875.

CHAPTER 104.

[Published March 4, 1875.]

AN ACT to appropriate money for the erection of signals, and to aid in the determination of secondary points in Wisconsin by the "Geodetic-connection division of the United States Coast Survey."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Geodetic-connection division of the United States Coast Survey--appropriation. SECTION 1. In order that the Geodetic-connection division of the United States survey, now engaged in the measurement of primary triangles across the United States, to connect the surveys already made upon the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, and who, during the past summer, have marked out, by careful reconnaissance, a system of triangles extending along the Wisconsin River from Prairie du Chien to Grand Rapids, and thence to La Crosse, may, while working within the limits of Wisconsin, be enabled to determine the greatest number of points visible from the primary stations, and following also, in this regard, the examples of other states through which said survey has already passed, there is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of (800) eight hundred dollars to aid in paying cost of erecting signals upon and determining the position of such points.

SECTION 2. Upon there being filed with the Secretary of State, by the chief of party appointed by the Superintendent of the United States Coast Survey, to do the work in the state of Wisconsin, sworn statements of the expenses actually and necessarily incurred, and of the number of signals erected and stations occupied under this act, which statement shall bear the indorsement of the Superintendent of the Coast Survey at Washington, D. C., that such work has been done in a satisfactory manner, the Secretary of State is hereby authorized and required to draw his warrant upon the state treasury for the amount of expenses so incurred; provided, they do not exceed the above named sum of (800) eight hundred dollars.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage.

Approved March 2, 1875.
