

one-tenth of the principal sum loaned by the commissioners of the school and university lands to the county board of supervisors of said county of Shawano, as provided for in the preceding sections of this act.

SECTION 4. Should any town or towns in the said county of Shawano, with taxable property not exceeding one-quarter of the entire valuation of said county, refuse to unite with the [other] towns into one high-school district, then the supervisors of the said county shall levy and collect the amount of money required for the payment of the annual interest, and not less than one-tenth of the principal sum loaned by the commissioners of school and university lands to the said supervisors of Shawano county, out of the taxable property of all the towns uniting into one high-school district under the provisions of the act mentioned in the first section of this act.

Town refusing to unite in high school district to be exempt from payment of principal or interest of sum borrowed.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 5, 1875.

---

CHAPTER 309.

[Published March 23, 1875.]

AN ACT to appropriate one hundred dollars to each industrial society of the state holding an annual fair.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby annually appropriated one hundred dollars to each industrial society of the state holding an annual fair, and reporting to the secretary of state and the secretary of the state agricultural society, as now required by law for county societies; provided, the receipts of such annual fair shall amount to eight hundred dollars, and to not more than two societies in any one county.

Appropriation to industrial societies.

Proviso.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 5, 1875.