

CHAPTER 97.

[Published March 4, 1875.]

AN ACT to amend section 46, of the Wisconsin School Code, and relating to common schools.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

Business may be done at any meeting of district board.

SECTION 1. Section 46, of the Wisconsin School Code, is hereby amended by adding to the end of said section as follows: But any meeting of the district board held within the limits of the school district shall be considered legally constituted to do business, provided all the members are present, and do each, then and there, consent to call it a meeting of the district board; and provided further, that the board, at any such meeting not previously called, shall not have power to purchase school apparatus, or to transact such other business as is provided for in sections 47, 51, and 53, of said code; and it shall be the duty of the district clerk to record the transactions of such meetings, said record to be signed by the district clerk and the other members of the district board.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 1, 1875.

CHAPTER 98.

[Published March 3, 1875.]

AN ACT to amend section 35, of chapter 243, of the laws of 1874, entitled, "An act relating to public printing."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

SECTION 1. Section 35, of chapter 243, of the laws of 1874, is hereby amended by adding to said section the following proviso: Provided, That said work of printing, stereotyping, and binding can be done in this state as well and at as low a price as elsewhere.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in
