CHAPTER 147.

[Published March 16, 1876.]

AN ACT to allow sheriffs and constables to receive necessary and actual disbursements in certain cases.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Sheriffs and constables to be re-imbursed for expenditures.

SECTION 1. Every sheriff and constable in serving criminal warrants shall, in addition to the mileage now allowed by law, be entitled to all actual necessary disbursements for board and conveyance of prisoners. And where persons accused of felony shall escape the pursuit of such officers without fault or negligence on their part, or where the district attorney shall certify such pursuit was necessary and proper, the county board of supervisors is authorized to allow a fair compensation for the time and necessary expenses incurred in such pursuit. But all extra compensation authorized by this section, shall be at the discretion of the county board.

Repealed.

SECTION 2. Chapter 245 of the session laws of 1875, is hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 7, 1876.
