

CHAPTER 303.

[Published April 5, 1876.]

AN ACT to legalize the acts of Bentley S. Phillips, a notary public for Eau Claire county.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The official acts of Bentley S. Phillips, Acts legalized. a notary public, residing in Eau Claire county, as done and performed by him between the seventeenth day of October, 1875, and the sixth day of March, 1876, being the interval between the expiration of his commission and this date, are hereby declared to be as legal and effective to all intents and purposes as if the same had been done within the legal lifetime of his said notarial appointment, and under and by virtue of his notarial commission.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 11, 1876.

CHAPTER 304.

[Published April 6, 1876.]

AN ACT to legalize the salaries of, and allowances to, county officers of Burnett county.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. To the end that all disputes between Burnett county and certain of its county officers may be adjusted, the acts and doings of the county board of supervisors of said county in fixing and establishing the salaries from time to time of the several county officers of said county from the time of the first election of county officers therein, up to the first day of January, A. D. 1876, and in allowing them or either of them certain fees or other allowances during that period, are hereby legalized and declared valid and binding on said county; provided, that the county board of supervisors of said county elected next after the passage of this act shall, by a vote of a majority Acts of county board legalized