CHAPTER 371.

[Published April 4, 1876.]

AN ACT to amend section one, of chapter three hundred and eleven, of the private and local laws of 1862, entitled, "An act to fix the salary of the clerk of the circuit and county courts for the county of Milwaukee."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

SECTION 1. Section one, of chapter three hundred and eleven, of the private and local laws of 1862, entitled, "An act to fix the salary of the clerk of the circuit and county courts for the county of Milwaukee," is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Salary of clerks of circuit and county courts and how payable.

SECTION 1. The salary of the clerk of the circuit and county courts for the county of Milwaukee is hereby fixed at the sum of six thousand dollars per annum, and the sum shall be paid to him by the county of Milwaukee, quarterly, at the end of each three months out of the county treasury of the county of Milwaukee, and the same shall be in full for all services which said clerk is required by law to perform, in any action or proceedings instituted, tried or had in said circuit and county courts, and also for deputy and clerk hire; provided, that in addition to said salary he shall also be entitled to receive the fees which are now provided by law for copies of records or papers, commissions, transcripts, and exemplifications of judgments and records, and in no case shall he or his deputy,
