CHAPTER 392.

[Published April 4, 1876.]

AN ACT to extend the time for settlers upon certain railroad land-grant lands to acquire title thereto.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Time for proving settlement extended.

SECTION 1. The time mentioned in section 14, chapter 126, of general laws of 1874, entitled, "An act to confer certain lands upon the North Wisconsin Railway Company, and the Chicago and Northern Pacific Air-Line Railway Company, and to execute the trusts assumed by the State of Wisconsin by its acceptance of the grants of land made by congress, by acts approved June 3, 1856, and May 5, 1864," for proving settlement and cultivation upon the lands in said section referred to, is hereby extended one year from the passage of this act.

SECTION 2. The proof of such settlement and cultivation as referred to in said section fourteen, may be filed with the commissioners of school and university lands, and such proof may be made by affidavit, which shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

Proof of settlement to be filed.

SECTION 3. It is hereby declared to be the true intent and meaning of said section fourteen, that any party entitled to land under said section may acquire land, not exceeding a quarter section.

Meaning of act.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect on and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 13, 1876.
