CHAPTER 221.

AN ACT to authorize the commissioners of school and university lands to loan a portion of the trust funds of the state to the county of Juneau.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Commissioners authorized to make loan.

SECTION 1. The commissioners of school and university lands are hereby authorized to loan a portion of the trust funds of this state, not exceeding the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars, to the county board of supervisors of the county of Juneau, in this state, and the said board of supervisors is hereby authorized to borrow a sum not exceeding seven thousand five hundred dollars of said commissioners, and to issue to said commissioners certificates of the indebtedness so contracted. Said indebtedness shall bear interest at the rate of seven per centum per annum, and said interest shall be paid annually, together with not less than one-tenth of the principal sum, after the first three years, until the whole sum is paid.

When payable.

Secretary of state to apportion amount due in state tax

SECTION 2. Each and every year, until the whole loan is paid, the secretary of state shall, when he apportions the state taxes among the several counties, add to the state tax which would otherwise be properly chargeable to said county of Juneau, the amount of the annual interest due on said loan, together with ten per centum of the principal thereof, after the said loan has existed three years as aforesaid, and the same shall be apportioned, levied and collected out of the taxable property of said county, and paid over to the state in the same manner as other state taxes are apportioned, collected and paid.

SECTION 3. Before any part of said loan shall be delivered to said Juneau county in exchange for said certificates of indebtedness, the county board of supervisors of said county of Juneau shall file with the secretary of state an acceptance of this act and of the terms and limitations herein provided; and the making and filing of such acceptance, as aforesaid, shall be deemed and held to be a levy of all taxes necessary for the repayment of the principal and interest of the said loan as herein provided: provided, that the loan heretofore authorized, together with all existing indebtedness shall not in the aggregate exceed five per centum of the taxable property of said county of Juneau, as appears by the last assessment for state and county taxes. Acceptance.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 16, 1878.
