CHAPTER 2.

AN ACT to authorize the town of Jefferson, in Jefferson county, to borrow the sum of sixteen hundred and fifty dollars to build a bridge across Rock river in said town, and to authorize the commissioners of the public debt of said town to loan said sum to said town.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Town authorized to borrow $1,650 of state trust funds.

Rate of interest

SECTION 1. The town of Jefferson, in the county of Jefferson, is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow of the commissioners of the public debt of said town for one year, and at a rate of interest not exceeding seven (7) per cent. per annum, the sum of sixteen hundred and fifty dollars ($1,650), for the purpose of building, and paying the expense of building, a bridge across Rock river in said town, at the point where said river intersects Milwaukee street in the city of Jefferson.

Authority of commissioners to make said loan.

SECTION 2. The commissioners of the public debt of said town of Jefferson are hereby authorized and empowered to loan to the said town of Jefferson, for one year, and at a rate of interest not exceeding seven per cent. per annum, the sum of sixteen hundred and fifty dollars ($1,650), for the purpose aforesaid, out of any funds now in their hands or under their control which have been raised and collected under and by virtue of chapter one hundred and eighty-two (182) of the private and local laws of 1867, entitled "an act to amend an act entitled an act to enable the town of Jefferson to settle with its creditors, and an act amendatory thereto, being chapters two hundred and twenty-six and four hundred and ninety-two of the local laws of 1866," and under and by virtue of all acts amendatory of said chapter one hundred and eighty-two including chapter two hundred and fifty-one of the laws of 1878.

SECTION 3. Within twenty days after the passage, approval and publication of this act, the chairman of said town shall execute, and the town clerk thereof countersign, a promissory note in substantially the following form, to-wit:

Chairman and clerk to execute note.

$1.650. JEFFERSON, WIS., —, 1880. Form of note.

On or before February 1, 1881, for value received, the town of Jefferson, in the county of Jefferson, Wisconsin, promises to pay to the commissioners of the public debt of said town, at the Jefferson County Bank, in the city of Jefferson, said county, the sum of sixteen hundred and fifty dollars ($1,650), with interest thereon from date at the rate of seven per cent. per annum.

—, Chairman Town of Jefferson.
Countersigned, —, Town Clerk.

Thereupon the chairman of said town shall deliver said note, so executed and countersigned, to the said commissioners of the public debt, who shall immediately upon such delivery pay to the town treasurer of said town the sum of sixteen hundred and fifty dollars ($1,650), and the said treasurer shall receive the same in like manner and under like liability as he receives other town funds, and shall pay it out only for the purpose aforesaid, upon orders properly drawn on him therefor.

Note to be delivered to commissioners, and money to be paid to town.

SECTION 4. When the said note shall have been executed, countersigned and delivered as aforesaid, and the said sum shall have been paid to the said town treasurer as hereinbefore provided, the said note shall create and be evidence of a liability on the part of said town to pay the said sum with interest, according to the tenor and effect of said note, but shall not be held to create or to be evidence of any personal liability upon the part of the said officers who shall execute and countersign the same.

Note to be liability of indebtedness.

SECTION 5. This act shall be published in the Jefferson Banner, a weekly newspaper published at the city of Jefferson, Wisconsin, and shall take effect from and after its passage and publication.

Publication of act.

Approved January 30, 1880.
