CHAPTER 230.

AN ACT relating to crimes and the punishment thereof, and to amend sections four thousand four hundred and ninety and four thousand four hundred and ninety-four of the revised statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Penalty for violence or attempting to escape.

SECTION 1. Section four thousand four hundred and ninety of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "prison," whenever it occurs in said section, the words "or house of correction of Milwaukee county," so that when so amended said section will read as follows: Section 4490. Any convict committed to the state prison or house of correction of Milwaukee county, convicted of a crime punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, under sentence for a limited time, who shall escape therefrom, or attempt by violence to escape, or assault the warden or other officer or person employed in the government or custody of said prison or house of correction of Milwaukee county, shall be punished by imprisonment in said prison or house of correction of Milwaukee county not more than ten years in addition to his former sentence, and also by solitary confinement of not more than one year, at such time or times as the court shall direct, and if said convict is under sentence of imprisonment for life, he shall be punished by solitary confinement at such time or times as the court shall direct.

Penalty for breaking prison

SECTION 2. Section four thousand four hundred and ninety-four of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "prison," whenever it occurs in the second and fourth lines of said section, the words, "or house of correction of Milwaukee county," so that said section, when so amended, will read as follows: Section 4494. Any person who may be in any prison in this state, under sentence of imprisonment in the state prison, or in the house of
