CHAPTER 185.

AN ACT to amend section three thousand four hundred and eighteen, of the revised statutes, being a part of chapter one hundred and forty-seven of said statutes entitled "of the writ of habeas corpus."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Service of writ,
when completed.

SECTION 1. Section three thousand four hundred and eighteen of the revised statutes, is hereby so amended as to read as follows: Section 3418. The service of such writ shall not be deemed complete until the party serving the same tenders to the person in whose custody the prisoner may be, if such person be a sheriff, coroner, constable, police officer of any city, or marshal, the fees allowed by law for bringing up such prisoner, nor unless when required by such officer, he shall also give him a bond in double the amount of the sum for which such prisoner may be detained, if he be detained for any specific sum of money, and if not, then in the sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned that such person will pay the charges of carrying back such prisoner if he shall be remanded, and that he will not escape by the way, either going to or returning from the place to which he is to be taken, and if such prisoner be not in the custody of any sheriff, coroner, constable, police officer of any city, or marshal, and the officer allowing such writ shall have required that the charges of bringing up such prisoner shall be paid by the petitioner, then until such charges shall have been tendered to the person in whose custody such prisoner may be, no fees or charges need be paid or bond given when service is made, as provided in the third subdivision of the second preceding section.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 24, 1881.
