

of such ballots cast relating to this law at said election shall be for union schools, then, and in that case, this act shall immediately take effect and be in force. All such ballots cast shall be counted and canvassed by the several boards of inspectors of election of said city, in the same manner as the other votes cast at said election, and the same shall be returned by the said inspectors to the city clerk, and the common council of said city shall, within the time appointed by law, canvass the same and declare the result.

Repealed. SECTION 34. So much of all acts or parts of acts as conflict with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 35. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 24, 1881.

[No. 394, A.]

[Published March 29, 1881.]

CHAPTER 188.

AN ACT to amend section three, chapter five hundred and eighty-six, private and local laws of 1867, in relation to dams.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

When tolls may be charged.

SECTION 1. Section three of chapter five hundred and eighty-six, laws of 1867, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: When the said James Meiklejohn, his associates and assigns, shall have completed the said dam and slide as aforesaid, they are hereby authorized and empowered to receive and collect from the owners of all rafts, lumber, logs, timber and other material passing over such slide, as a compensation for maintaining and keeping in repair such slide, the tolls hereinafter specified, to-wit: Two cents for each thousand feet of sawed lumber, or lumber in logs, scale measure, or in lieu thereof, one-fifth of one cent for every log not over twenty feet long, and one-half cent for every log over twenty feet long, which shall be paid the said James Meiklejohn, his associates or assigns, after the logs are rafted, and the amount shall be ascertained, either by the scale, or by count of the superintendent of the Wolf river boom company, and the said James Meiklejohn shall hold a lien on all logs or lumber run over said dam for the amount above specified, which lien may be enforced in the same manner as the lien of laborers on logs: provided that he shall at all times comply with the provisions of section two of said chapter five hundred and eighty-six of the private and local laws of 1867, in furnishing water to flood said logs or lumber out of the Little Wolf river.

Tolls.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 24, 1881.

[No. 365, A.]

[Published March 29, 1881.]

CHAPTER 189.

AN ACT to amend chapter one hundred and ninety-three of the laws of 1880, entitled an act to provide for service of process upon transportation companies.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter one hundred and ninety-three, of the laws of 1880, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1. Every association, company or corporation, domestic or foreign, not duly organized and incorporated under the laws of this state, formed for the purpose of transporting of passengers or property, either by boats, vessels, rail, stages or other means, doing or desiring to do any business in this state, before doing any such business, shall first deposit in the office of the secretary of state a written instrument, duly signed by the president and secretary thereof, and under their seal, if they shall have such officers and seal, otherwise by the principal officer thereof, and therein appoint an attorney to reside in this state, and have an office therein, specifying his place of residence and office, upon whom and where any summons, notice, pleading or process of any court of this state, or in any action therein, may be served, and shall therein stipulate that any service of any such summons, notice, pleading or process, upon any such attorney, or in his absence at his said office, in any action brought against it in this state, upon any cause of action arising out of any business or transaction in this state, shall be accepted irrevocably as a valid services upon such association, company or corporation, unless another attorney shall be subsequently appointed with like authority in his stead, such authority shall be continued unrevoked while any liability remains outstanding against said association, company or corporation in this state, and such appointment shall not be revoked until another be made, and a like written instrument Certain corporations to appoint attorneys to reside in this state.

Service of process.