

masters, each three dollars and fifty cents; doorkeepers, firemen, porters, gallery attendants, night watchman and janitors, each three dollars; all messengers, each two dollars. The per diem here established shall only be allowed from the commencement to the adjournment of the legislature. The chief clerk and sergeant-at-arms of each house shall certify to the secretary of state the names of all persons employed in their respective departments, the capacity employed in, and the number of days employed, which certificate shall be authenticated by the presiding officer of the house in which they are employed. Upon such certificate the account of the person named therein shall be audited, and paid out of the state treasury. At the close of each session of the legislature the secretary of state shall publish in the official state paper a full list of the accounts so audited.

Repealed.

SECTION 3. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of May, 1882.

Approved March 30, 1882.

[No. 159, 8.]

[Published April 12, 1882.]

CHAPTER 315.

AN ACT relating to the distribution of the geological survey, and amendatory of section 79 of the laws of 1879.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Number of copies to be printed.

SECTION 1. The commissioners of public printing are hereby authorized and required to procure the printing of one thousand copies of volume one of the report of the geological survey of this state, in addition to the number heretofore ordered printed.

How distributed.

SECTION 2. Every member of this legislature and the lieutenant governor shall be entitled to seven copies; the chief clerk and sergeant-at-arms of either house shall each be entitled to three copies of said volume one. The remaining volumes shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 30, 1882.