CHAPTER 30.

AN ACT to amend chapter 25 of the revised statutes, entitled
Of the University.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 389 in chapter 25 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following words: "And all gifts, grants, bequests and devises for the benefit or advantage of the university, or any of its departments, colleges, schools, halls, observatories or institutions, or to provide any means of instruction, illustration or knowledge in connection therewith, whether made to trustees or otherwise, shall be legal and valid, and shall be executed and enforced according to the provisions of the instrument making the same, including all provisions and directions in any such instrument for accumulation of the income of any fund or rents and profits of any real estate, without being subject to the limitations and restrictions provided by law in other cases; but no such accumulation shall be allowed to produce a fund more than twenty times as great as that originally given." So that said section as so amended, will read as follows: "Section 389. For the support and endowment of the university, there is annually and perpetually appropriated:

Relating to gifts to University.

1. The university fund income and all other sums of money appropriated by any law to the university fund income.

2. The agricultural college fund income.

3. All such contributions as may be derived from public or private bounty.

Disposal of funds.

The entire income of all said funds shall be placed at the disposal of the board of regents by transfer to the treasurer of said board, thenceforth to be distinct and independent of the accounts of the state, and for the support of the aforesaid colleges or departments of arts, of letters, and such other colleges and departments as shall be established in the university or connected therewith; but all means derived from other public or private bounty, shall be exclusively devoted to the specific objects for which they shall have been designed by the grantor; and all gifts, grants, bequests and devises for the benefit or advantage of the university, or any of its departments, colleges, schools, halls, observatories or institutions; or to provide any means of instruction, illustration or knowledge in connection therewith, whether made to trustees or otherwise, shall be legal and valid, and shall be executed and enforced according to the provisions of the instrument making the same, including all provisions and directions in any such instrument for accumulation of the income of any fund, or rents and profits of any real estate, without being subject to the limitations and restrictions provided by law in other cases; but no such accumulation shall be allowed to produce a fund more than twenty times as great as that originally given."

Approved March 3, 1883.
