CHAPTER 123.

AN ACT to amend section 371, of the revised statutes, concerning the purchase of books for the state library, and increasing the appropriation therefor.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 371, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: The trustees shall procure for the library, from time to time, such law books, books of reference and works on political science and statistics, but no others, as they shall think reasonably necessary or desirable. There is hereby appropriated for the purpose of paying for such books two thousand dollars per year. The accounts for such purchases shall be audited by the secretary of state upon affidavits by the state librarian that the books have been received in the library, and upon approval thereof by the trustees, or a majority of them.

Concerning purchase of books for stat library.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 20, 1885.
