CHAPTER 178.

AN ACT to amend chapter 125, of the revised statutes, entitled, "Of Garnishments."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2771, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 2771. The defendant may, at any time before judgment, file with the clerk of the court, an undertaking, executed by at least two sureties, resident freeholders of the state, to the effect that they will, on demand, pay to the plaintiff the amount of the judgment, with all costs that may be recovered against each defendant in the action, not exceeding a sum specified, which sum shall be not less than double the amount demanded by the complaint, or affidavit of garnishment, or in such less sum as the court, or presiding judge, shall, upon application, direct. The sureties shall justify their responsibility by affidavit annexed, stating a sum which each is worth, in property within this state, over and above all his debts and liabilities and property exempt from execution, the aggregate of which sums shall be double the amount specified in the undertaking. The defendant shall serve a copy of such undertaking, with a notice where and when the same was filed, on the plaintiff. Within three days after the receipt thereof, the plaintiff shall give notice to the defendant that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties, or he shall be deemed to have waived all objections to them. When the plaintiff excepts, the sureties shall justify in like manner as bail upon an arrest, and the provisions of sections 2704,

Relating to garnishments, statutes amended.

2705 and 2706, shall be applicable thereto. Thereafter all the garnishees shall be discharged and the garnishment proceedings shall be deemed discontinued, and any money or property paid or delivered to any officer, shall be surrendered to the person entitled thereto and the costs shall be taxable as disbursements of the plaintiff in the action, if he recovers.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 28, 1885.
