CHAPTER 180.

AN ACT to authorize Jefferson T. Heath and L. B. Royce, their associates and assigns, to construct and maintain a dam across Sand Creek, in Barron county, on lands owned by Beaver Lake Lumber Company.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Jefferson T. Heath and L. B. Royce, and their associates and assigns, are hereby authorized to construct and maintain a dam across Sand Creek, on the north half of section seventeen, township thirty-six, range fourteen west, Barron county, Wisconsin, and on lands owned by the Beaver Lake Lumber Company. Said dam to be constructed for hydraulic and manufacturing purposes, and for the purpose of facilitating the driving of logs down said stream, and the transportation of logs and timber to the place of manufacture; provided, the rights and interests of the owners of lands adjacent thereto, or in lands overflowed by reason of the erection and maintenance of said dam, and all damages sustained thereby, shall be adjusted and settled as provided by chapter 318, of the laws of Wisconsin for 1882; and provided, farther, that the water in said Sand Creek shall not be raised by reason of the construction and maintenance of said dam to exceed eighteen feet above the ordinary water level, at the point where said dam shall be erected and maintained. And provided, farther, that any of the provisions of this act may be altered, amended and repealed, whenever the legislature may deem it proper to alter, amend or repeal the same. The aforesaid persons, their associates and assigns, shall build
