CHAPTER 194.

AN ACT making an annual appropriation to the State Agricultural Society, and providing for the compensation of county delegates to the state fair.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby annually appropriated to the Wisconsin State Agricultural Society, the sum of four thousand dollars. Provided, that no warrant shall be drawn by the secretary of state for the payment of the sum of money hereby appropriated, except upon the presentation of a sworn statement, signed by the president and secretary of the said Wisconsin State Agricultural Society, certifying that the sale of intoxicating liquors has been prohibited and prevented upon the fair grounds of said society, during the year for which the appropriation is made.

Appropriation to state agricultural society.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the several agricultural societies entitled to the state aid of one hundred dollars, in this state, to send their president or other representative to the state fair, where the annual election of officers is held, there to act on committees of award, and to cast the vote for the county in the aforesaid election.

Agricultural society presidents to attend state fair.

Compensation, etc.

SECTION 3. On the arrival of the president or other representative at the state fair, he shall report to the secretary thereof, and on the certificate of the secretary of his attendance and performance of the duties named in section 2, of this act, the treasurer shall pay him two dollars per day for the time he has been in attendance, not exceeding five days, and six cents per mile, one way, over the nearest traveled route from his home to the place where the state fair is held.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
