

Statutes of judgment or decree.

SECTION 2. A judgment or decree affecting real estate shall only be a lien from the time it is actually docketed, and its priority as a lien shall be determined by its number on such daily journal. No judgment or decree affecting real estate, which shall be docketed and dated back to a time prior to its actual entry in the judgment docket, shall be a lien upon real estate or notice to a purchaser for value. Every clerk who shall docket a judgment or decree with a date or time other than the date and time of its actual entry, or shall neglect to docket the same at the proper time, shall be liable to the party injured in treble damages.

Fees for making entry.

SECTION 3. For every entry upon such daily journal the clerk shall receive a fee of twenty cents.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and publication.
