CHAPTER 70.

AN ACT to legalize the acts of A. Fetzer and K. Youngs in building a dam across the Ahnapee river and to authorize the said A. Fetzer and K. Youngs to maintain said dam.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The acts of A. Fetzer and K. Youngs in heretofore building a dam across the Ahnapee river on the following described lands owned by them: The east half, of the southwest quarter, of section number twenty-nine, town twenty-six, range twenty-five, in the county of Door, state of Wisconsin, are hereby legalized.

SECTION 2. The said A. Fetzer and K. Youngs, their heirs and assigns, are hereby authorized to maintain said dam for manufacturing purposes; provided they shall conform to all the conditions of chapters 70 and 146, of the revised statutes of 1878, so far as the same may be applicable; and provided also, that any of the provisions of this act may be altered, amended or repealed, whenever the legislature may deem it proper to alter, amend or repeal the same.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 13, 1885.

CHAPTER 71.

AN ACT to appropriate the sums of money therein named to the charitable, reformatory and penal institutions of the state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, to the institutions below named, the following sums of money, for the purposes specified, to wit: To the Wisconsin State Hospital for the Insane, for current expenses, including painting, and necessary repairs, to January 1, 1887, ninety-four thousand dollars; for building water tower and reservoir, and making necessary connections, ten thousand dollars. To the Northern Hospital for the Insane, for current expenses, including painting and necessary repairs, to January 1, 1887, one hundred and forty-four thousand dollars; for rebuilding and repairing damage caused by fire, six thousand, five hundred dollars; for purchase of real estate, five thousand, seven hundred dollars. To the Wisconsin Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb, for current expenses, including painting and necessary repairs, to March 1, 1877, eighty-two thousand dollars; for purchase of real estate, one thousand dollars; for building boiler house, coal vaults and laundry, and removing boilers and machinery thereto, ten thousand dollars. To the Wisconsin Institution for the Education of the Blind, for current expenses, including painting and necessary repairs, to March 1, 1887, thirty-three thousand and five hundred dollars. To the Wisconsin Industrial School for Boys, for current expenses, including painting and necessary repairs, to January 1, 1887, seventy-nine thousand dollars; for purchase of thirty-two acres of land, two thousand, five hundred dollars. To the Wisconsin State Prison, for current expenses, including painting and necessary repairs, to March 1, 1887, nineteen thousand, five hundred dollars; for purchase of real estate, four thousand, five hundred dollars.

be submitted before funds
can be drawn.

SECTION 2. No part of the money hereby appropriated for the purchase of real estate, shall be drawn from the treasury until an abstract of title thereto, shall be furnished and submitted to the attorney general, and he shall certify that the state will acquire, by the proposed conveyance, a good title thereto, free and clear of all liens and incumbrances. And it is hereby made the duty of the attorney general to examine said abstracts of title and proposed conveyances, and give his opinion thereon, as contemplated by the foregoing provisions.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
