CHAPTER 88.

AN ACT to amend chapter 209, of the laws of Wisconsin for the year 1883, entitled, "an act to authorize the erection of a dam across Black river, in the county of Clark, Wisconsin, and to grant certain powers and privileges to certain persons therein named.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Law authorizing erection of dam across Black river amended.

SECTION 1. Section 1, of chapter 209, of the laws of Wisconsin, for the year 1883, is hereby amended by striking out the words "six hundred" where they appear in said section, and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "six thousand," so that said section, when so amended, will read as follows: Section 1. James Hewitt, his heirs and assigns, are hereby authorized and empowered to erect, keep up and maintain a dam, not exceeding ten feet in height, across the Black river in Clark county, Wisconsin, at a point on said river not more than six thousand feet distant from where O'Neill's creek empties into the said Black river. Said dam to be erected and constructed for manufacturing and boomage purposes; provided, that said dam shall be provided and furnished with a suitable slide or chute, so as to allow the free and unobstructed passage of saw logs.

SECTION 2. Section 2, of said chapter 209, of the laws of Wisconsin, for the year 1883, is hereby amended by striking out the words, "two thousand," where they appear in section two, and inserting in lieu thereof the words, "six thousand," and by striking out the words, "and provided further" where they appear in said section 2, and inserting in lieu thereof the word, "provided," and by adding at the end of said section 2, the following words: "And provided further that such piers and booms shall be so erected, operated and managed as not to materially obstruct or retard the free passage of logs down said Black river," so that said section two, when so amended, will read as follows: Section 2. In connection with said dam said James Hewett, his heirs and assigns, are further authorized and empowered to erect, build, keep up and maintain a system of piers and booms in and along and across said river, not distant from said dam, however, more than six thousand feet; provided, further, that no charge for tolls upon logs passing through said dam or booms shall ever be collected or received by said James Hewett, or his heirs or assigns; and provided further, that such piers and booms shall be so erected, operated and managed as not to materially obstruct or retard the free passage of logs down said Black river.

SECTION 3. The legislature may at any time alter, modify, amend or repeal this act.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 18, 1885.
