CHAPTER 19.

AN ACT to provide for a register of probate in the county of Rock.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The county judge of the county of Rock may appoint from time to time, subject to removal, a competent person to record the proceedings of the county court of Rock county, and the person so appointed shall be officially styled, "Register in Probate." Such Register in Probate shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and prescribe to the constitutional oath of office, and file the same in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county of Rock, and Creating office of register in probate for Rock county.

shall execute to the county of Rock a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, with two or more sureties, to be approved by said county judge conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties required by law to be performed by such Register in Probate, which bond, with the approval endorsed thereon, shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county of Rock.

Duties of register.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of such Register in Probate to record all wills admitted to probate by the county court of the county of Rock, all letters testamentary, letters of administration, letters of guardianship, bonds of guardians, orders, judgments and decrees made or granted by said county court, and all other proceedings and matters required by law to be recorded in said county court; and any oath or affidavit required or authorized by law in proceedings in the county court for the county of Rock, may be taken before such Register in Probate. Whenever in the absence of the county judge from the county, any application shall be made to the county court, the hearing whereof requires notice to be given by the court, the Register of Probate may cause such notice to be given and the order directing such notice signed as follows: By the court, — —, Register in Probate; and the notice given accordingly, when so signed by the Register in Probate, shall have the same force and effect as if signed by the county judge.

County judge may appoint to fill vacancy.

SECTION 3. The appointment of such Register in Probate, may, at any time, in the discretion of the said county judge, be revoked and annulled by the said county judge, and whenever from any cause a vacancy shall exist in said office of Register in Probate, such vacancy may be filled by appointment by said county judge.

Salary of register to be fixed by county board.

SECTION 4. Such Register in Probate shall receive a salary to be fixed by the county board of Rock county, and the county treasurer of the county of Rock shall pay the same monthly; provided, that until the salary of such register shall be fixed by the county board, the county judge of Rock county, may, and is hereby authorized to fix the salary to be paid to such Register in Probate.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 4, 1857.
