

occur in the last three lines of said section, so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 5. The said clerk shall receive for all services rendered and performed by him under the provisions of this act, in the administration of the estates of deceased persons, and in the appointment of guardians to minors, the same fees as are allowed by law for similar services in the circuit court, to be paid from the county treasury.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 31, 1887.

---

[No. 145, S.]

[Published April 18, 1887.]

CHAPTER 200.

AN ACT relating to the employment of persons imprisoned in county jails.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

May be sentenced to hard labor.

SECTION 1. Whenever any person shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail of any county within this state, by any court or judge for any offense which may be punished by imprisonment in the county jail, the court or judge before whom such person is convicted may also sentence such person to hard labor during the term of his imprisonment within the county where the offense was committed.

County board to have direction of convict labor.

SECTION 2. The county board of supervisors shall have the direction of such convict labor and may, by resolution, adopt such rules in relation thereto as it may deem best, and the sheriff or other officer having the custody of such convict shall be governed thereby.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 31, 1887.