CHAPTER 281.

AN ACT to declare the force of the enumeration taken by the town clerks, of towns having at the last enumeration of the inhabitants of this state, by the state, an unincorporated village within their boundaries.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Force of last enumeration.

SECTION 1. In every case in which a town had within its boundary at the time of taking the last enumeration of the inhabitants of this state by the state an unincorporated village, and the town clerk of such town separately enumerated the inhabitants of such village, such enumeration shall, for all purposes and in all courts be taken and received as conclusive evidence of the population of such unincorporated village at the time of such enumeration.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved April 2, 1887.
