CHAPTER 287.

AN ACT relating to conspiracy to injure another in his reputation, trade, business or profession, or to compel another to do any act against his will, or to prevent another from doing any lawful act.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any two or more persons who shall combine, associate, agree, mutually undertake, or concert together for the purpose of wilfully or maliciously injuring another in his reputation, trade, business or profession, by any means whatever, or for the purpose of maliciously compelling another to do or perform any act against his will, or preventing or hindering another from doing or performing any lawful act, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars. Boycotting.

SECTION 2. All acts or parts of acts, as far as they conflict with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed. Repeal.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1887.
